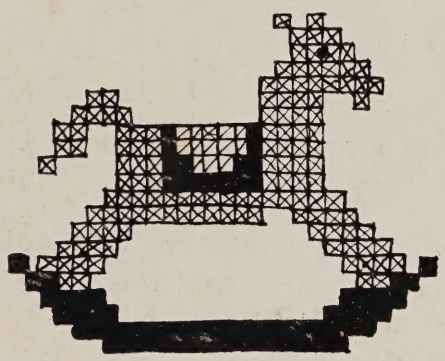
THE SAMPLER

1921-1922



PUBLISHED BY

Senior Class of Sullins College

Bristol, Virginia

FOREWORD

This is a book of memories of 1922, a sampler, into which is woven the tender recollections, hearty laughter, friendships, and associations which made our college life a joy, which Time itself cannot efface.

As we walk through the dusky chambers of memory, may we often think of the old days, the happiest period of our lives, when, with gladness of heart and buoyancy of hope, we always seemed to be standing in the sunshine.

In the sunset glory of after years, may these experiences, perpetually repeated in memory, still awaken that constant fidelity and tenderness of affection which sanctify life.

DEDICATION

We dedicate this, THE SAMPLER of 1922, to Mrs. Baskervill, to whose untiring effort in promoting the general welfare of the College, each student owes a debt of gratitude. Not only has her service been for the whole, but she has never been too tired or too busy to listen to any individual problem, however insignificant. We wish to express our appreciation also for the lofty standards which she has instilled into the minds of the students, ideals that have made them wish to do right for its own sake. And we wish, also, to express our esteem for the noble woman herself who has upheld these ideals.

ALMA MATER

It's a mighty good school, so it is, dear friend,
When even the worst is said;
We rise by bells, and we eat by bells,
And a bell sends us to bed;
There's a feast and a fast,
A joy, then a class,
And chapel each morning does call;
But still I declare,
Foul weather or fair,
It's a mighty good school after all.

It's a mighty good school, so it is, dear friend,
When even the worst we have;
And we've learned to know
Why we love it so—
And for Sullins let's all give a cheer;
There's no place like home, but wherever we roam
We'll hear Alma Mater's call;
So crown her as best,
She'll sure stand the test;
She's a mighty good school after all.

The Sampler

My Grandmother's sampler, brown with age,
In an attic old, forgotten lies;
On it no dream of wildrose hue
Is worked to please the eyes.

But this the legend that is wrought
In cross-stitch pattern true—
It must have been her Mother's thought;
No, that of little Prue.

"While rosy cheeks thy bloom confess,
And youth thy bosom warms,
Let virtue and let wisdom dress
Thy mind in brighter charms."

Not thus shall I another's thought
Embroider to-day;
While lost in dreams of other things
My heart is far away.

But in a book, "The Sampler" called,
I'll set my visions down.
Howe'er imperfect they may seem
They'll be, at least, my own.

MISS HAILE, Sponsor

GRACE WOODBRIDGE BESANCON

ENTERED 1921-'22
Detroit, Michigan

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Michigan-Indiana Club.
Circle-Francais.

Of course everyone knows "Frenchy" who talks frenchy, walks frenchy and sleeps frenchy. She holds the unique position of having discovered the route to Madamoiselle Houston's heart. But may it be said she possesses decided talent along other phases of work beside French. She is level headed, business like, steady, good hearted and kind. Each day we hear her say, "who is going for the mail? Don't dare come back without 'the letter-r-r'." Of course, we know who she means. But here's to Grace, for there's not another like her. May she lead the class of '22 into the realms of success.

MARY S. BURWELL

ENTERED 1920-'21
Warrenton, North Carolina

GENERAL DIPLOMA

President Carolina Club, 1921-'22.
Joke Editor of THE SAMPLER.
North Carolina Club, 1920-21.

Mary is an ideal school girl, one who believes in "having fun"; is full of "pep", friendly, fun loving, and she has many lasting friends in Sullins. Mary is a girl whom we are all glad to meet and all who know her love and admire her, so we are sure everything nice will be hers in the future.

MILDRED LOUISE CARPENTER

ENTERED 1921-'22
St. Joseph, Missouri

GENERAL DIPLOMA

President of The Missouri Club.
Literary Editor of THE SAMPLER.

The quotation appropriate for a place beside Mildred's name is, "To know her is to love her." Her personality combined with her rare intellectual ability makes her a general favorite. She possesses qualities which, if possessed by every one, would make of the world an ideal place in which to live.

DOROTHY CECIL

ENTERED 1920-'21
Bristol, Virginia

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Dorothy is a girl of whom Sullins is proud. She's a good student, a sympathetic classmate, an all-round sport. She has endeared herself to the girls by her personality and her accommodating disposition. She is known as "The girl with the car," and is always ready to give a friend a "lift" anywhere and at any time. "Dot" might be described briefly "A generous heart, and altogether a jolly good fellow."

FLORENCE RUTH COHN

ENTERED 1921-'22
Kane, Pennsylvania

DIPLOMA AND SECRETARIAL CERTIFICATE

Pennsylvania Club, 1921-'22.

"Flory" is one of our new Seniors. She already has proved herself bright, interested in class and school activities, and willing always to help in any way she can. She has intellectual ability, as well as common sense, and performs every duty well. Florence's quiet forcefulness and sweet kindliness render her most charming. A trim appearance and elegant simplicity of dress, make of her a most attractive picture.

"Heart whole and fancy free
So she seems, apparently——."

LISBETH BYRD COPPOCK

ENTERED 1920-'21
Cambellsville, Kentucky

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Circle-Francais, 1921-'22.
Kentucky Club, 1920-'21, 1921-'22.

In the class of '22, Lisbeth ranks as one of our English stars. Tho' very small, her aptitude for Shakespeare is great. Her favorite indoor sport is "Campbell's Tomato Soup." If she indulges in this sport much longer Lisbeth will surely become an ideal specimen of the Campbell's Soup Kid. A hard worker, a jolly schoolmate and a loyal friend, Lisbeth is sure to make her mark in this big world.

ELIZABETH CORBIN

ENTERED 1920-'21
Fremont, North Carolina

GENERAL DIPLOMA
EXPRESSION CERTIFICATE

Vice-President North Carolina Club, 1920-'21, 1921-'22.

"Swiftie," as she is popularly known, needs no introduction as she has always shown great interest in all college activities, and is ever ready to join with the crowd.
She acquired many friends in college who will always keep a warm spot in their hearts for her.

MARY HALL DRINKARD

ENTERED 1920-'21
Bristol, Virginia

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Mary Hall is a day student. She has taken a sincere interest in the various activities, scholastic, and otherwise, of Sullins. She easily takes her place among the star pupils of the Class of '22. Besides pursuing her studies this year to obtain her diploma, she has taught a class in High School Chemistry. To have conducted this course successfully as she has, is in itself an accomplishment worthy of credit. She is best known for the bright smile and witty remarks with which she brightens each daily class. Sullins is indeed proud to send out a representative of such high merit.

LOUISE EXLINE

Assistant Editor The Sampler.
Texas Club.
President Junior Class.
Varsity Basket-Ball cup team.
President Euzethian Literary Society.
Vice-Pres. Student Council, 1920-'21.
President Sophomore Class.

To say "Ex" is capable isn't enough for she has organizing ability as well, and has proved a most able Senior President. Her high ideals and principles, her good ideas and common sense have helped us all individually and as a class. "Ex" isn't all seriousness, oh no! She has sense of humor, wit and cleverness, and is always ready with her share of "stunts" on Saturday nights. To her, we wish all possible success and happiness, and we feel sure such will be her's by her own ability and personality

HERMIE AUDRY HARKINS

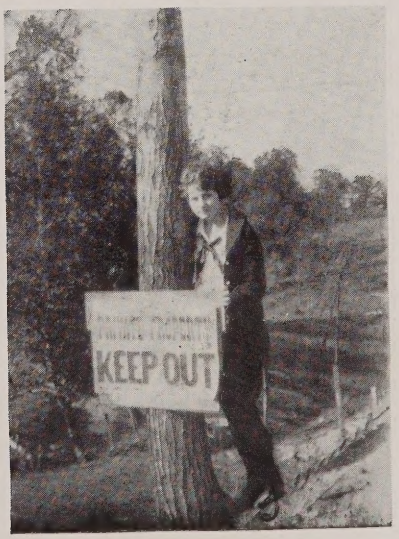
GENERAL DIPLOMA

Louisiana Club, 1921-'22.
Odds and Ends Club, 1920-'21.
Euzethian Literary Society, 1920-'21.

Because Hermie is rather quiet, she might seem distant, but when you know her she comes nearer being shy. Ready whenever needed, Hermie is a real asset to the Senior Class. Her constant good humor will make friends and her steady earnestness will achieve that success of which her Alma Mater will be proud.



LUCILE BELFORD HARPER

ENTERED 1919-'20
Birmingham, Alabama

GENERAL DIPLOMA

President Alabama Club, 1921-'22.
Student Council, 1921-'22.
Secy. and Treas. Senior Class.
Student Council, 1919-'20.

"Ceal," one of our Star members of the Senior Class, is noted for her generosity. Besides possessing kindness, she is also efficient in most anything she undertakes. It's a rare thing to find a girl who possesses the qualities of brilliancy, honesty and above all, the love and confidence of those with whom she comes in contact; but these and even more are found in Lucile. Whenever any question came up that demanded tact she was the first one sought, and has in every instance carried it through to the satisfaction of all.
If you don't believe this, ask Mrs. Stone; she'll let you know that "Ceal" is one of the lovely "Birmingham girls."

"Quiet and gentle
Tho' not really shy,
Everyone likes her,
We don't wonder why."

MARY KATHERINE JONES

ENTERED 1918-'19
Beloit, Mississippi

GENERAL DIPLOMA

President Mississippi Club, 1921-'22.

You must know Mary in order to appreciate the infinite variety of her charm. She gets all fun out of life, puts much into it, but manages to combine lots of work with play. "She is one of our good students," the Faculty are heard to say. The way she keeps her spirits up even when her mind wanders "way down in Mississippi." A Sullins girl without change, a student without bluff and a friend without sham.

MARY BANE KELLY

ENTERED 1921-'22
Bristol, Virginia

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Few are blessed with the intellectual strength of Mary Bane. This, however, she has never known. Although a "town girl" she brings enthusiasm into every feature of school life. One of those "dependable Sullins girls," right there with the goods—whether leading the missionary meetings or lifting high the College Yell. Out of all she gets a thrill, and "Nannie" is one whom all the world calls friend.

CONSTANCE KING

Here's to dear "Old Connie," one of the most attractive members of the Senior Class! There are not many like her, with her pleasing personality, her charm, and last but not least, her "pep." She'll some day make the world sit up and take notice. If you will not take our word for it, ask Marion!

SCHON LANDMAN

ENTERED 1921-'22.
Waco, Texas

CLASSICAL DIPLOMA

With her sunny disposition and her keen sense of humor, Schon is a sure cure for the blues. All play and no work, however, does not appeal to her. She has the distinction of being the only girl in the Class of Twenty-two who has attained the Classical Diploma. This alone need speak for her intellect and ambition. With keen intelligence and lofty ideals, Schon is destined for life's high levels.

MARGARET MERRITT

ENTERED 1920-'21
Clarendon, Arkansas

PIANO DIPLOMA

Arkansas Club, 1920-'21, 1921-'22.
Asst. Practice Preceptress, 1921-'22.

Margaret, a Senior of talent and a nature musical! She hails from Arkansas and is proud of it! Sweet and friendly, and although an earnest worker, Margaret is always there when it comes to a good time. If you don't believe it ask Rosalie. She will give you a glowing picture of the jolly hours they have spent together. Often has Margaret been heard repeating "Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast," and we certainly expect her to try it on one of them. May her delicate touch render all other agencies unnecessary.

JANIE MIXON

ENTERED 1919-'21
Dothan, Alabama

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Sec.-Treas. Alabama Club, 1921-'22.
Alabama Club, 1920-'21.

No monument is necessary to keep Janie forever in our fondest memories. Sullins and the class of '22 hold but one "Ole Jane." She is famous especially for her good old Southern talk. When she learned her alphabet, no one taught her that there was in it the letter "r." You'll always find Jane the same, always in a good humor, sympathetic, frank, independent, and in for fun. When Janie packs up—sweater, footballs, Auburn pillows and all—and is Alabama-bound for the last time, Sullins will say good-bye to one of her finest girls.

"Some one who is steadfast in joy or in sorrow,
Someone who grows dearer to-day and to-morrow."

BETTY MUNROE

ENTERED 1920-'21
Quincy, Florida

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Sec.-Treas. of Athletic Assn., 1922.
Florida Club, 1920-'21.
Varsity Basket-Ball, 1920-'21.
Junior Basket-Ball cup team.

Betty found her way to Sullins from some little town in Florida, and since then she has entered enthusiastically into every school activity, except, perhaps, an occasional Education Class. Her personality has won for her a place in the hearts of all who know her, and her "pep" and cheerfulness have made her known—Varsity has depended on Betty for two years. As "Mother" to the team she proved her worth and as a guard she was always there playing her share of the game. You have a future before you, Betty, and the class of '22 wish you w ll.

Phoebe is known all over school for her sunny, jovial disposition; no matter when or where you meet her or how you are feeling she can make you laugh by her bubbling wit. She is good natured and lovable, and has a manner which has endeared her to all. She, however, is a most conscientious student, as well as an ardent supporter of all good times, and will stick to one through thick and thin. She is a girl whose friendship is well worth cultivating. Phoebe's name appeared on the honor roll every month. Being a star performer in the Domestic Science department, she will make some man a dandy wife. Here's wishing you happiness for the future, Phoebe.

ALICE M. NIEMEYER

ENTERED 1920-'21
Little Rock, Arkansas

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Vice-President Senior Class
President Arkansas Club, 1921-'22.
President Y. W. C. A., 1921-'22.
Sec.-Treas. Arkansas Club, 1920-'21.
Euzethian Literary Society, 1920-'21.

"Ringling" stands in our Sullins hall of fame as our "most popular girl." She carries her load, yet ready for fun; ever modest, yet plenty of "pep;" through sunny days or rainy days, she's smiling just the same. "Ring" is a leader in all school activities, and with the hearty co-operation of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet and members, she has succeeded in bringing to that organization one of its years of greatest service.

'Tis true that "precious things come in small packages" and here seem stored all things good. That seeming indifference vanishes when you know one of her secrets and the evidence ever is strongly in favor of RALPH.

MARTHA THOMAS RAWLS

ENTERED 1920-'21
Nashville, Tennessee

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Vice-Prest. Tenn. Club., 1921-'22.
Tennessee Club, 1920-'21.

There is no one in the world just like Martha, and to define her would take more skill than we possess. Making a vain attempt, however, we might represent her thus: "Not too serious, oh, never! Not too gay, no, hardly ever! Original, very, with it all; the right amount of cleverness to "get by" without studying her Science VI. "Tommy" has the distinction of being one of the few Seniors that can carry a tune (?). Indeed, she sings a musical soprano, that same soprano heard so often after light bell on second hall, main floor. Martha has that determination which wins and our Class looks with confidence to her success.

JOSEPHINE ROWLAND

ENTERED 1920-'21
Stamps, Arkansas

GENERAL DIPLOMA
ART DIPLOMA

Arkansas Club, 1920-'21, 1921-'22.

Here's to Josephine, one of the most capable members of the Senior Class! She is small in body, but great in capacity for learning. If she puts the same enthusiasm into her after life that she has put into her studies, she will make her mark. She possesses an unusual talent in Art and will achieve a place in Artistic circles of which her school mates will be proud.

WILLIE SIMMS

ENTERED 1920-'21
Hazen, Arkansas

GENERAL DIPLOMA
PIANO DIPLOMA

Arkansas Club, 1920-'21, 1921-'22.

Music is Willie's guiding star, and to hear her play is to recognize a young genius. We shall never forget the chapel hours made bright when Billie played "The Music Box." We like her all in all, but most of all her even temper, naturalness, and good judgment. In poise and dignity, she sustains the traditions of a Senior Class and commands the love and esteem of those who know her best.

OLGA W. SIMMONS

Odds and Ends Club, 1920-'21.

In Olga the old "red hair" tradition goes to smash. Instead of fiery outbursts of anger, we see that gentle mood and even temper which has endeared our friend to every girl of 1922. A good sport, in fun her share, in class spirit, unexcelled. Her advanced standing and good work enabled her to earn her Diploma in February. Come back, Olga, in the closing days of May and let's sing together our class song of final victory.

EVELYN SKILLERN

ENTERED 1920-'21

Emma Willard Literary Society, 1920-'21.

A rare combination, we find in "Skillern." When wit, good-nature, sense, and looks combine, watch out! We couldn't do without you, "Skillern," on our Annual staff; and in the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet you brighten life for us. We warn you, however, to be careful with that wild imagination of yours, and not let the horses fall off the corn-stalks. Just go through life, "Skillern," as you have through Sullins.

ELIZABETH SMEDES

Secy.-Treas. Junior Class.
Athletic Editor Scrap Book, 1920-'21.
Vice-Prest. Y. W. C. A., 1919-'20.

"Smedes" has been a loyal member of the class of '22 for three years, and we have but to look back on the record she has made to see that success has been her reward. She has entered most enthusiastically into every phase of school life, and her originality, humor, willingness, and ability have helped to "put over" many a doubtful situation. "Smedes" is a sport of the right sort, a dominant figure in all athletics, and as president of the Athletic Association she works for the best interests of the school. Sullins loses an all-round good girl when "Smedes" leaves, and we hope for her that her future will be as true to herself as her school days here have been.

A worthy representative from "The Old Bay State." Said state could not have sent us a better Senior. For when it comes to anything pertaining to music or art, Latin and books, she can surely deliver the goods. Rita, we are proud of you, and feel sure success and happiness are yours for you have the high ideals, principles, ability, and personality to achieve anything you set out to accomplish.

Virginia—the shining star in the Dramatic Art Class. She has a very strong determination to make something great of herself; and some day we may stroll down Broadway and see in bright lights the name of our classmate. Her jovial spirit which never deserts her has been the life saver of many a blue classmate on a rainy day. We always think of Virginia as being one of the sharks of the Senior Class. I'm sure no one will ever forget her in years to come. Just mention the name Smithers vs. Bobbie, and every one will remember her clever portrayal of this character in the play of Clarence. Here's wishing you the best success in all your future undertakings.

Old "Arizona," the best sport in the world is always in for everything. She has an inexhaustible supply of "pep" and is a sure cure for the blues. Nobody could be homesick with "Arizona" around. This combined with her other assets, as her cheerfulness and big heart, explains why she has such a host of admirers, among others, Jack; and if I had but the time, ink and space I could mention a dozen or more.

KATHERINE RAYBOURNE THOMPSON

ENTERED 1920-'21

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Kentucky Club, 1920-'21.
Sec.-Treas. Ky. Club, 1921-'22.

Who could think of "Puss" without thinking of her charming manner and beautiful complexion? A level head, easy going way, and a dry humor describes her to a "t." The breakfast bell she never hears, consequently, her desire for food keeps the "Y" hut financially supported. She is Secretary of the Kentucky Club which shows how the girls regard her business-like ability, and for "Puss" is predicted a life of gaiety, pleasure and a wealthy electrical engineer.

"Ole Mrs. Verna!"—who doesn't love her and her "I declare," "I have never," and "I know, it uh huh!" Although inclined to favor Morpheus, Verna has played on Varsity the two years she has been at Sullins, and has done much toward making possible our many victories. But Athletics is not her only asset, for last year she was voted the most attractive girl in school. We feel confident that Verna will make as big a success in life as she has a friend.

WYLLIE MAY TYNER

ENTERED 1922
Glenwood, Alabama

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Alabama Club.

Wyllie May, a newcomer in the class of '22, has impressed her companions with her brilliancy of mind, her friendliness, and her ability to enter into the spirit of the school with earnestness and enthusiasm. She is noted for her kindness and generosity. When once given the needed stimulus she responds with an abundance of "pep." We are indeed glad to have a girl with her qualities in the class of '22.

MARTHA W. WARNER

ENTERED 1920-'21
Nashville, Tennessee

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Pres. of Tenn. Club, 1921-'22.
Member Student Council, 1921-'22.
Sec. of Tenn. Club, 1920-'21.

Martha is a girl in a million, and with her beauty and persuasive ways, is sure to make many friends. She is not the excitable kind, except when the mail comes; and during the much dreaded recitations in Psychology, she manages to keep calm, even when "bluffing." That Martha has ability is witnessed by the manner in which she has filled her place as President of "The Tennessee Club," and as a member of the Student Council. A girl of character and personality, her influence for good is sure to be felt.

Catherine is one of our big Seniors in more than one sense of the word. She is a good sport, big hearted, and generous. She has one of the best dispositions in school. In for athletics, stunts, and all school activities, she has proven herself an all-round good girl. In bidding farewell to "Katie," we wish for her the best of futures.

ROSA BELL WILLIAMSON

ENTERED 1920-'21
Petersburg, Virginia

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Virginia Club, 1920-'21, 1921-'22.
Emma Willard Society, 1920-'21.

We all like "Rosie," and besides a good student and ranking among the highest of the Senior Class, she is full of life and a good old sport. Her dry wit, which she is so entirely unconscious of, makes her unusually attractive and appreciated by all. Just listen to her talk a few minutes and you'll know she hails from "Ole Virginia" by her true Southern brogue. She has been "called down" a few times for making noise; she can be excused as she rooms next to Mrs. Baskervill.

MARY WILLOUGHBY

ENTERED 1920-'21
Wilmington, North Carolina

GENERAL DIPLOMA

North Carolina Club, 1920-'21, 1921-'22.

Since Mary rapped at the door of Sullins two years ago, there has been little in her conduct to merit criticism. She belongs to that class of people who reserve their opinion unless they have something to say. But beneath her quiet dignity lies that quality which makes for lasting friendship. Her motto is:

"The friends thou hast and their adoption tried,
Grapple them to thy soul with hoops of steel."

We do not know what the future holds, but we are sure that her interest and loyalty to her Alma Mater will endure.

RUTH WILLOUGHBY

ENTERED 1920-'21
Wilmington, North Carolina

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Carolina Club, 1920-'21, 1921-'22.
Emma Willard Literary Society, 1921-'21.

The Senior Class cannot boast of any member more sincere and willing than Ruth. Her talent in Art has certainly been an asset to THE SAMPLER, and the fact that she has worked so diligently and faithfully speaks well for her character. We hold only one thing against Ruth, that her modesty prevented her from coming earlier to the front. With her gentle tact and perseverance in right doing, she will achieve a happy and successful life.

LULA MARGARET WYLY

ENTERED 1920-'21
Camden, Tennessee

EXPRESSION DIPLOMA

Devotional Committee Y. W. C. A., 1921-'22.
Dramatic Art Club.
Tennessee Club.
Baseball Team, 1920-'21.

Lula is a credit to Sullins, to her class and to herself, and we are proud to say that she is a member of the class of '22. To be dependable, conscientious and willing are virtues possessed by few, but these are merely a few that could be placed under Lula's name. Her place on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet as chairman of the devotional committee could not be filled by any other girl for there are none more capable or sincere. Whatever her mission in life be, we feel sure that she will fulfill it with the same enthusiasm and zeal that she has put into her work here.

FANNY YOUNG

ENTERED 1919-'20
Dallas, Texas

GENERAL DIPLOMA

Advertising Manager of THE SAMPLER.
Chairman Entertainment Committee of Y. W. C. A., 1921-'22.
Cheer Leader 1920-'21, 1921-'22.
Texas Club.
Vice-Prest. Y. W. C. A., 1920-'21.
Prest. French Club, 1919-'20.

When you're tired and rather lonesome
And sorter out of step,
And you've lost your vim and vigor
And wish you had some "pep!"
When you're sad and frown at nothing,
When you're lifeless and you're stung,
The tonic that you need, my friend,
Is our cheer-leader, Fanny Young.

The Seniors

When the firelight glowing clear
  Cheers our hearts and gently brings
Memories that we hold dear,
  And 'round us all her magic flings—
Let us dream of Twenty-Two;
  Look into old memories deep;
Dream of things we used to do,
  As thoughts, long absent, softly creep.

Let us picture in our minds
  Mountains distant, dimly seen
From our windows through the pines,
  Deep blue dusk the filmy screen;
Or the autumn, crimson hued,
  In the colors nature sowed
That we, breathless, eager, viewed
  From the climbing mountain road.

Next in fancy, let us stray
  To the lake for feast and sport,
'Long the winding woodland way,
  Laughter never falling short;
Row along in painted boat
  Past a gliding, swift canoe;
Sing or idly rest afloat,
  Calling oft from crew to crew.

Let us think of Senior Tea,
  Festive hour with one we love,
Y. W. games, the Christmas tree
  With the shining lights above.
Dream, oh Seniors, tender dreams!
  Those dear days were all too few;
Youth, with all its pleasures, seems
  But memories of Twenty-Two.

—Schon Landman, Class Poet.

Class History

On September the twenty-second, 1920, the doors of Sullins College opened to welcome girls from everywhere. The newcomers were soon comfortably settled and cheerful. Then a meeting of the Junior class was called, and it was found that they could launch their ship of state with a crew of eighty on board. They chose for Captain the same leader under whom they had served the year before, Louise Exline.

As the Junior Class was the largest body of students in school, they determined to win the distinction of being also the most efficient. They achieved immediately a high record in Athletics. The Varsity of that year had on it six girls from their class and in the match games the Juniors came out victorious.

On the roll of statistics, also, the class was well represented. The statistics show who's who in the eyes of Sullins, and from among the Juniors there came six of the sixteen names on the list. This was an unusually fine showing for the younger class.

Juniors were present, moreover, in considerable numbers in the Student Council and on the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet.

The Class, in addition, closed the year of 1920-1921 with an elaborate Dutch supper to the Seniors.

The next September found nearly all the Juniors back again, strolling up and down the halls, wondering if they looked sufficiently dignified. Soon they met, and with many new class-mates organized themselves into the Senior Class. Again they chose, as their President, Louise Exline.

As they looked back over the work of the Junior year, they saw that they had no easy duty to perform; that it was incumbent on them not only to maintain but to surpass their former record. A glance through THE SAMPLER will reveal how they have accomplished their task.

As the time draws near for them to depart from the College, and as they glance backward at the years spent there, it seems to them that the trials they have suffered have been few and the pleasures enjoyed many. They advance now into the world, and may they establish there the high ideals they have learned to cherish at their Alma Mater!

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Sullins College, of the year nineteen hundred and twenty-two, being ready to enter upon a long journey to the unknown world, do declare, and publish our last will and testament, thereby annulling all legacies and bequests, formally made by us:

To our Alma Mater, we leave our sincerest hope, reverence, and affection.

To our esteemed President, Dr. Martin, we bequeath the right to hold Current Events classes every Wednesday morning, especially for the Seniors; and may these classes be more appreciated in the future than they have been in the past!

To Miss Haile, our sponsor, we leave our deepest gratitude and appreciation. In addition to this we leave the wish that she may have at least one fire drill a year, in order that the students of Sullins College may have the privilege of wetting their one and only bath towel before they land outside to answer roll call.

To Mrs. Baskervill, we leave a request that a special noise-proof building be erected on the campus for her private use.

To the Faculty, we do hereby bequeath an expression of thanks for the patience and interest they have manifested throughout our days at Sullins. To Miss Wynn, we leave the exclusive right to narrate to her classes all family affairs so that they may thereby know the correct ways of living. To Miss MacKellar, we leave the ardent wish that in the future her assignments in Education may be less lengthy. To Miss Hamilton, we will a more brilliant and wide-awake Dietetics Class, one that will understand thoroughly the words that fall from her tongue. To Miss Blackwell, we bequeath all the dolls of our childhood.

To the Hostesses, we bequeath the right to continue living among the girls, forever watchful that no visiting is done, nor noise made during study hours.

To the Junior Class, out of the depths of our hearts, we bequeath bountiful portions of Shakespeare, Cubberley, and Hayes. We entrust also to them all of our privileges and the great dignity of being Seniors.

To our sister class, the Sophomores, with the consent of Dr. Martin, we do hereby bequeath the following privileges: Those of going to town whenever they feel the least bit inclined; of going riding any evening of the week; of staying away from meals and chapel whenever they get ready.

To the Freshman Class, we will all our old clothes which we know will fit them, providing the garments are made over.

Louise Exline, president of the class, wills her executive ability to Betty Howell.

Kathryn Webster unselfishly leaves to Mary Louise Ramsey, one of her dresses from which to make her summer wardrobe.

THE SAMPLER

Betty Monroe wills her power of argument with Miss MacKeller to Dorothy Stone, knowing that she has left it in competent hands.

Ringling Neimeyer, out of the generosity of her nature, abdicates the throne of popularity in favor of Thelma Summerson.

Josephine Rowland bequeaths her height to Leona Baer in hopes that she will soon gain her full growth.

To Bristol, we leave the entreaty that she may not have more than ten fires a day.

Last but not least, we, the Senior Class, give Mrs. Wilson's Cook Book to Sullins College with the request that all menus be taken from this volumn.

SIGNED by the unanimous consent of the Seniors present, the thirtieth of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and twenty-two.

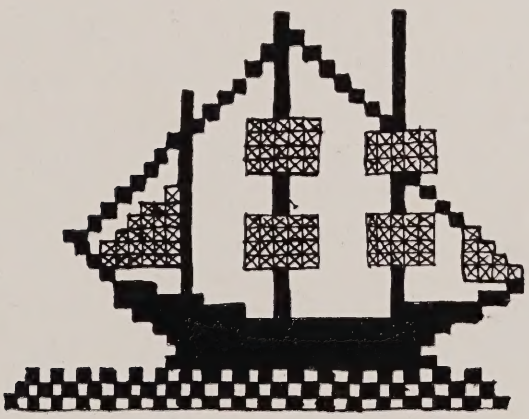
Signed and sealed in the presence of
JEAN CHAMBERLAIN, Pres. of Junior Class
MARY LOUISE PAGE, Secy. of Junior Class.



Class Prophecy of 1922

Sullins College,
Bristol, Va.,
May 21, 1926.

Dear Fanny:

You can't realize how wonderful it has been to see all the girls, and to hear what has happened to them since the memorable May of '22, when we parted, to meet again at this class reunion. True to my promise, though my mind is in a whirl, I'll do my best to tell you about each and every girl of our class. Everyone was so sorry that you could not come, but I explained to them that there was no one to take your place as matron of the orphanage, and that several of the poor little children were sick. They were surprised to hear that Verna Thompson was there with you as the designer of the costumes for the orphans of your asylum.

I finished my course in Aesthetic Dancing at Vestoff-Serova, in New York, just in time to come by Washington and stop over for a few days. I met Grace Besancon there and we had quite a lovely day together. Would you believe it, Grace married the French ambassador and spends most of her time in "Gay Paree." In fact, now she speaks English very brokenly. It seems she saw Katie Webster in Paris not long ago, when Katie had come up to get a few new Paris creations. On her trip abroad Katie fell for an Italian Count, and was married soon afterwards. They are very happy in their villa by the sea, and Katie is quite emaciated.

I saw a few of the girls before I left New York. Florence Cohn dropped by one afternoon. She is making a success as a fancy bare-back rider at the Hippodrome. Florence told me Willie May Tyner, who is really a marvel of the slack wire, yes, a tight rope walker, appearing at the Hippodrome, but is now in vaudeville. The Willoughbys are both living in New York. Ruth is an eminent architect and has a contract for a building of fifty stories—up in the world one might say! Mary is accompanying Ruth to the dizzy heights of fame, as she is operating one of the elevators in the Woolworth Building. One afternoon, we three went to Keith's vaudeville, and we nearly succumbed when Hermie Harkins appeared on the stage and with her a trombonist, who was none other than the young man that played the 'cello at school one time. It seems he changed from the 'cello to the trombone, and Hermie got him on the slide. She is his inspiration, being more of an inspiration for the trombone than the 'cello, I think.

I met Alice Neimeyer coming down on the train from Richmond. She is now the wife of a professor at the University of Virginia. As you remember, he was in school there when she was at Sullins. She looked very well, but a great, great deal fatter. Alice said Mary Burwell was nearly heart-broken because she couldn't come up for the reunion, but Havana, Cuba, is so far away, and then, too, Mary has so many classes in Gym and dancing. Betty Munroe had planned to come. She was just recently married to a boy at St. Petersburg, Florida. Yes, the one she said she would marry for his money if the friends next door should ever ask her to visit them, and give her a chance at vamping. But sad to relate, after she caught him, he lost his fortune within a week. Poor Betty, a moneyless marriage!

Janie Mixon and Constance King both came all the way from Pike's Peak, Colorado. Janie, you know, is teaching dancing, social and otherwise, in Arizona Stewart's school, known as "Stewart's Septuagenarian Institute." Connie King teaches Domestic Science there, too. They say Arizona is quite gentle and patient with the dear old ladies, and that her school has a very high standing—probably due to the high altitude, as it is located on Pike's Peak.

Virginia Smithers and Phoebe Nelson were several days late, but finally got here. They had just arrived from Borneo where Phoebe is a missionary. After Miss Winn's heart-stirring, mission-appealing course in Sociology, Phoebe could not conscientiously enter any other field of work. Virginia, it seems, had a break down after a very trying but outrageously successful tour in "As you Prefer It," and so went to visit Phoebe in the wilds of Borneo. They both looked quite well and happy, and wished to be remembered to you.

Kitty White arrived from the country. You see Kitty gave up her career as a singer to become a farmer. She calls herself an agriculturist. She looked very well, and was stunningly dressed, carrying a small Bowser under her arm. (Pug nose, of course.) Kitty had come by the way of Chicago, and had heard Willie Sims on the concert stage there. She is a noted pianist now.

Old Swiftie Corbin was here—she is a Pippin. Yes, she married him, and is very happy indeed. She had recently heard from Rita, who is running a gift shop and tea-room, and attaining a marked degree of success. She is happy, healthy, and Hardy. Swifty says that Mary Bane Kelly is making a very good judge of the supreme court of Criminal Appeals in North Carolina. I'm not the least bit surprised.

We all had a very interesting letter from Rosa Belle Williamson, who is now in Egypt. You know she is very scientific and is delving into the mysteries of the Sphinx. Rosa Belle has written several books on her expeditions. She enclosed a picture of herself, seated on a camel which was standing under a palm tree. She was dressed all in white with a divided skirt and one of those tropical hats which was quite becoming to her. We also had a note from Mildred Carpenter, who is now in the Fiji Islands, lecturing. She is usually on a Chautauqua tour, lecturing on "Refinement and Culture." When not lecturing, she is reposing in her elegant home on the Missouri river.

THE SAMPLER

Mary Jones was here. She is married and lives in Mississippi, in a "vine clad cottage," of course. Mary says that her life is very uneventful and that writing text books on Mathematics in her leisure hours, furnishes thrills enough for her.

Lisbeth Coppock was here only one day, as she is so busy, she is quite a business woman. Lisbeth is at the head of the Coppock Soup Concern. Having eaten the Campbell Company out of their business, and needing soup, she started a company of her own. Bright woman! She saw Catherine Thompson not long ago, and says she has improved so much and is about her natural self again. Catherine's electrical engineer gave her such a shock that it shattered her nerves completely.

Wilmer Page doesn't live so very far from here. In fact, she is in town very frequently, as the motion picture concern of which she is a director takes pictures around Bristol. Martha Warner is leading lady of the same company. Having been disappointed in love, Martha took to the silent drama, as ducks take to water. Both Wilmer and Martha motored in the other day for Mrs. Martin's tea given in honor of our class reunion. The other Martha, Martha Rawls, from all reports, is quite an ice skater, hailing from Quebec where the ice freezes thicker. She is to have an engagement in Nome, Alaska, real soon. Would you have ever pictured Martha Rawls an ice skater? It is hard to believe, I know.

I wrote you not long ago about a letter I had from Evelyn Skillern. She is still holding her own, on the race track. You remember how "Skillern," even in school, was prone to riding imaginary horses and even corn stalks when her imagination ran away with her. "Skillern" says that in buying horses, she sees Lucile Harper very frequently. Lucile is the keeper of a zoo in Kalamazoo, Michigan. She has all sorts of animals and not only takes care of them, but tames and trains lions, sea lions, kangaroos, and lizards.

Schon Landman is connected with the government, writing pamphlets on various subjects, on food generally, sometimes on engines, and again on books.

Josephine Rowland is with the Cosmopolitan Magazine doing various illustrative work, and cover designs. She drew that charming head on the cover of the last month's issue.

Mary McCoy Sloan is a nurse and is at the head of a Red Cross unit accompanying an expedition to Uruguay. She sailed sometime last week. We had a cable from her last Thursday. She wishes to be remembered to the class. We also had a wire from Olga Simmons, who has a very attractive studio in Boston. She teaches piano, voice, and violin, and has a great many pupils.

I hate to close with this parting shock, but here it is: Mary Hall Drinkard and Dorothy Cecil are in cahoot running a jitney line in and about Bristol (mostly about). They are making good money as the street cars haven't got here yet.

Well, I believe I have told you all there is to tell about the girls of old '22.

THE SAMPLER

The reunion is over to-morrow and Louise Exline and I leave for New York to sail for Algiers. You know Bill was transferred there, and left the week "Ex" came down here to the reunion. I will drop you a line from there.

Please take care of the children, Fan, dear. My best to Verna. Those frocks she designs for the orphans are very chic.

Yours sincerely,

"SMEDES"

P. S.—Lula Wyly and Margaret Merritt were going to write you but they have been so busy this week grading exam. papers that they haven't had the time. Lula, you know, is registrar, having succeeded Miss MacKellar; she also teaches English. Margaret teaches piano and offers a very practical course in Practice Preceptering.

A gay class is the Junior Class,
With a love for mirth and dancing;
They beguile the heart with lovely art,
They are really quite entrancing.

A strong class is the Junior Class,
As was shown from the beginning;
A daring class and a bold class
With an aptitude for winning.

A brave class is the Junior Class,
With a taste for steady striving;
The class of nineteen twenty-three
Has a habit of surviving.

It is not growing like a tree,
In bulk, doth make a man better be.
Or standing long an oak, three hundred year,
To fall a log at last, dry, bald, seer.
A lily of a day
Is fairer far in May,
Although it fall and die that night.
It was the plant and flower of light
In small proportions we just beauty see;
And in short measures life may perfect be.

Spring Fever

It doesn't make a difference
If you're young or if you're old,
The gypsy feeling gets you
And it grips you in its hold.

In you it takes a different form
And though you may not know it,
You catch the fever every year,
In various ways you show it.

For it doesn't make a difference
If you're young or if you're old,
The gypsy feeling gets you
And grips you in its hold.

Try, Try Again

If at first you don't succeed,
Try, try again.
Oh! Poetic Muse, give heed
As I try again.
Though I try I'm sure to fail,
Still I seek my Holy Grail,
So, Poetic Muse, all hail!
For I tried again.

If a verse or two is made
As I try again,
I shall feel my time repaid,
Since I tried again.
This verse proves that saying old,
Don't be weak! Be strong and bold,
Work and win your own bright gold—
Try and try again.

Calendar of Events

September 15—Weenie Roast. The first affair was a weenie roast given by the Y. W. C. A. A large bonfire was built and we all spent an enjoyable evening, roasting weenies and toasting marshmallows.

September 20—The few first comers meanderingly straggled and moped into chapel where the sympathetic musical faculty found them and banished their blues by an impromptu recital.

September 25—Miss Deuvletian told of her people's experiences in Armenia during the world war. As she is a native of Armenia she is able to give first hand knowledge of the present condition in her own country. Mme. Colard gave a beautiful solo.

October 5—Mrs. Jenny entertained all the members of Mr. Jenny's music class at an afternoon tea.

October 19—Lecture by Bishop Jett, on "Aim at the Mark."

October 20—Deaconess Gibson, the Educational Secretary of the Episcopal Diocese of Southwestern Virginia, was for several days the guest of the college. In her talks she gave in detail most interesting accounts of her experiences.

October 25—Address by Mrs. Hanger, Vice-Commander of the American Women's Legion and Chairman of the Women's Democratic Party of Virginia.

October 30—Faculty supper at Y. W. C. A.

October 31—Hallow'een dance given by Soph's and College Specials.

November 2—Talk by Deaconess Williamson.

November 8—Talk by Miss Bain.

November 11—Armistice Day program.

November 14—Informal reception given by Miss Macrae for her pupils.

November 16—"Ole Virginia Muddle" picnic given by the College to the Rotarians.

November 18—Address on "Health" by the prominent dietitian, Doctor McFerrin.

November 20—A luncheon was given by members of one of the social clubs of the College, Monday, at the Colonial Tea Room. The guest-list included Misses Louise Exline, Fanny Young, Elizabeth Smedes, Kathryn Luna, Geraldine Chapman, Jean Chamberlain, Margaret Philip, Isabel Robinson, Alice Evans, Marjorie Benton, and Verna Thompson.

November 27—Thanksgiving.

December 4—The V. P. I. Cadets who took part in the Minstrel Show were given a Tea Dansant by the members of the Senior Class, at the "Y."

December 7—Mrs. Martin entertained the Seniors and members of her class in Shakespeare with a delightful tea.

December 10—Student Recital.

December 11—The students, under the Auspices of the Y. W. C. A. gave a very elaborate Christmas tree for the children selected by the Captain of the Salvation Army. Every suite of girls adopted a little boy or girl for this occasion. Toys and clothing as well as nuts, oranges, apples and candy were given every child invited. The faculty and students of the Department of Music sang several Xmas Carols.

December 13—Dancing recital by pupils of Miss Dozier.

Dec. 14—Christmas dinner.

Jan. 14—A party given by Y. W. C. A. at the "Y" hut.

January 21—"Better Baby Contest." Each class entered three babies, the cutest, the prettiest and the ugliest. Mme. Colard, Miss Stanley, and Mrs. Trimmer were the judges.

January 27—Program by Mr. O'Hara, artist and composer.

Feb. 2—Lyceum-Prihoda, violinist.

February 4—A reception at the "Y" given by Dr. and Mrs. Martin to the faculty and students.

February 11—Dr. and Mrs. Martin gave a reception for the faculty and student body at the "Y" Hut. The different members of the faculty were impersonated by the students. These "take-offs" were very well done and very much enjoyed. Refreshments were then served, consisting of chicken salad, saltines, olives, coffee, hot chocolate, orange ice and mints.

February 28—The Mardi Gras Ball, which took place in the dining room of the College, was one of the most brilliant affairs given this year. The students in their multicolored costumes lent gaiety to the evening's entertainment. The King and Queen, the Misses Jean Chamberlain and Carmen Rothenberger, seated on a throne placed at the extreme end of the dining room, viewed the guests as they paraded before them in the grand march. The program was then continued with a quaint minuet. Following this dance were three solo dances by pupils of Miss Dozier—the Misses Margaret Smith, Dorothy Grizzard, and Florine De Hart. The college orchestra played the remainder of the evening, with a short intermission for refreshments and for the awarding of the prize to the Misses Stone and Smithers as the prettiest couple on the floor. The Misses L. Smith, M. L. Page, I. Yost and H. J. Rhoades received honorable mention, the former for being the handsomest men, and the latter two wearing the most original costumes. Little Misses May Lannon and Amelia Martin were proclaimed the "cutest" couple on the floor.

March 2—Devereux Players presented "Ghosts," by Ibsen, and "Magic," by G. K. Chesterton.

March 17—The Shamrock Minstrels. The stage decorations were carried out in green and white. The end-men were good and did not fail to perform their duty—keeping the audience roaring all the time. The entire show was racy, with Irish wit and the celebrities were a rare treat. Those taking part were:

Interlocutor.....Virginia Smithers
End Men.....Elizabeth Stewart, Rosalie Woodrum

Circle

Janice Maloney	Helen Josephine Rhoades
Virginia Mae Webb	Mary Burwell
Alice Evans	Elizabeth Purifoy

Athletic Notes

Never before has such an interest been taken in sports and athletics as has been taken this year, not merely by the "athletic girl" but by the majority of girls in school. This interest of participation is due to the type of Sullins girl plus the beautiful silver loving cup that is offered to the girl having the most points to her credit at the end of school. This cup is given by Mr. J. B. Ryland and is to be presented to the girl, not necessarily the most skilled and efficient in athletics, but to the girl who has spent the greatest number of hours out on the tennis courts, in the gym, in the swimming pool, on the hockey field and at other sports. Many of the girls are hard at work and the race is proving to be a close one.

Lake Sycamore and fields adjoining are a new addition to the Sullins Campus and equipment. The lake is a beautiful one, picturesquely situated between the hills and shadowed by tall trees. Along one side is the boat house and dressing rooms. It is an ideal location for a lake and promises during the oncoming Spring weather to be the center of attraction. The hockey field and base-ball diamond are situated by the lake. Both hockey and base-ball are fast becoming the absorbing sports of the season and the Sullins hockey squad is out for victories.

Our basket-ball season this year was a short but successful one, winning three out of four games played. The success of our Varsity of '21-'22 was due to its all-round good team, co-operation, quick work, clean playing and the able coaching on the part of Miss Haile who was the incentive for hard work and true sportsmanship.

VARSITY SCHEDULE

November 5—Eastern College, 42; Sullins, 33.

November 19—Radford State Normal, 8; Sullins, 34.

December 3—Elizabeth College, 13; Sullins, 71.

December 9—Radford State Normal, 7; Sullins, 20.

This year about the second week in May, at Lake Sycamore, is to be held a swimming meet. It is an event of class competition, each class entering six representatives. The class scoring the most points wins the swimming banner; the individual girl scoring the most points receives a Spalding swimming suit. The events of the meet are as follows:

A.—Strokes for form, five points each:

1. Breast stroke.
2. Side stroke.
3. Double over-arm stroke.
4. English (or single) over-arm.
5. Australian crawl.

B.—Dives for form, five points each:

1. Plain still dive.
2. Straight running dive.
3. Best optional dive.
4. Plunge for distance.

C.—Game—Water Polo between the sister classes.

D.—Races—Relay—Sister classes: first place, four points; second place, two points.

E.—Distance swim (not race) length of lake and back, five points.

F.—Entry for beginners: Six points to class which can put up a girl who can do any one stroke and one optional dive. This girl is not to be included in the regular six contestants.

May-day, with all of its granduer, the crowning of the queen, her attending court and the pageant and other events for Her Majesty's entertainment are this year to have a novel representation in the form of a water festival at Lake Sycamore.

One might say that the year of 1921-22 in the athletic realm of Sullins has been the most interesting, varied, and successful year of all. To Miss Haile, with her enthusiasm, ability to make things "go" and her personality, is due the credit and honor of this year.

It's You

If you want to go to the kind of a school
Like the kind of a school that you like,
You needn't just slip your books in a grip
And start on a long, long hike,
For you'll only find worse than you left behind.
There's nothing that's really new.
You knock yourself when you knock your school,
For it isn't your school, it's you.

All real schools are made by all those afraid
Lest somebody gets ahead.
When everyone works, and nobody shirks
You can raise a school up from the dead.
If on time that you make your personal stake
Your schoolmate will make one, too.
Your school will be what you want it to be,
For it isn't your school, it's you.

DEDICATION

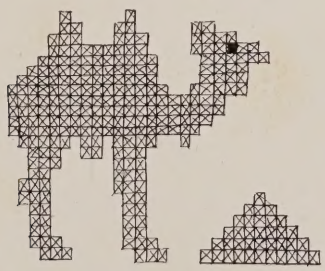
To those of you who, by your actions, have merited these remarks;
To those of you against whom the editors hold no grudge;
To those of you who would do the same even unto us;
And to the whole world for fear some girl has escaped by luck,
These pages are dedicated.

MOTTO

"If the faculty is for it,
We're agin it."

WARNING

'Tis no use to become angry. It has been unanimously decided, and any denial said of statements made here will be taken by faculty and student-body to constitute proof. Besides, the responsible parties are soon leaving school.



THE SAMPLER

ETHEL DARBY—"Is there an art in kissing?"
JACK—"The only art is, "Art thou willing?"

MR. HUTCHESON—"Do you want a large or small picture?"
THELMA S.—"Small, please."
MR. H.—"Then, close your mouth."

CORRINE T. (frantic with excitement)—"Why doesn't that aviator hang out on the ladder over Sullins?"
ETHEL GREEN—"He's afraid he might fall for us."

MISS HAILE—"Yes, I am trying to have the best fire department this year that we ever had."
MISS STANLEY—"What's the latest?"
MISS HAILE—"We're going to practice fire drill two days before each fire."

RING—"I just did pass on Bible."
ANNE J.—"Oh, I made 97."
RING—"Yes, but yours is High School Bible."
ANNE J.—"It makes no difference; it's the same book."

KITTY WHITE (after singing)—"There is a great deal more volume to my voice."
GRIZELDA—"For goodness sake, don't sing the whole volume."

LOREE KEITT—"Why is——in disgrace with Evangeline?"
JANICE M.—"He rose hastily when her mother entered the room——."
LOREE—"Well, a gentleman should rise——."
JANICE M.—"And dropped the girl on the floor."

ANNE J.—"Do you love me still?"
DORIS—"I do, you seldom are."

ANNA D.—"Mildred Black declares that she will stake her reputation on——"
VIRGINIA MAE—"Hah, she isn't gambling very heavily, is she?"

ARIZONA—"Why do they call you Bill?"
BILLIE SMOKE—"Cuz I came on the first of the month."

THE SAMPLER

RINGLING (looking at the clock in the front hall)—"Wonder why they don't fix that clock so it will run?"

MARY—"Because Mrs. Baskervill doesn't want anything running in the halls."

PHOEBE—"Why does the reporter look at my nose so much?"

VIRGINIA S.—"Don't you know that a reporter is supposed to look at anything that turns up?"

MRS. BASKERVILL—"You can have the piano, if you will put a notice over it, "Hands Off.'"

MISS MCKELLAR—"Tell me what you know about the Anglo-Saxon Race."

BETTY MUNROE—"I wasn't there; I went to the foot-ball game."

JANIE TOPP—"What is a fortification?"

URSULA—"Why, two twentyfications."

VERNA—"Poor man, he was driven to his grave."

FANNY—"Why, of course; did you expect him to walk?"

JERRY—"My hair grows like weeds."

SMEDES—"Yes, vacant lot."

ANNE J.—"Yes, I'm a deep thinker."

BETTY MUNROE—"You may be for your ideas never get to the surface."

HELEN SAUNDERS—"Where did you get the black eye?"

BILLIE SMOKE—"Told the conductor I was traveling on my face and he punched the ticket."

JOSEPHINE ROLAND—"What would this nation be without women?"

RUTH J.—"A stagnation, of course."

A specimen of Mary White's translation:

"Haec in Gallia est importantu."

"Hike into Gaul, it's important."

Miss Winn—"What's the liberty bell?"
Ethel Green—"The bell at the end of the history period."

A popular style of recitation at Sullins:
Rise slowly, leisurely remove a large piece of chewing gum from your mouth, put finger against brain, then say in a low but clear and confident tone, "I don't know."

M. Warner—"You know Martha Rawls sleeps in gloves to keep her hands soft."
Dot Sturges—"She must also sleep in her hat."

AN INGENIOUS EXCUSE

Mrs. Baskervill (at Palais Royale, N. Y.)—"What took you so long with my eggs?"
Waiter—"Pardon the delay, madam, but they were mislaid."

Eugenia and Rosabelle discussing love:
Eugenia—"The ancients considered the liver the seat of love. What is it now?"
Rosabelle—"It's the knee."

Rene B. (in Washington)—"Let's go to the Smithsonian Institution."
Clarita S.—"Oh, I'm so tired of girls' schools."

FRATERNITIES

I was kissed one night by a good A. D.
And I've been cuddled up close to a D. K. E.
I've been loved to death by an S. A. E.
But I've never been touched by a B. V. D.

Bernice Holt—"I bet Caesar was a strong man."
Wilmer Page—"Why?"
Bernice—"Well, the book says he pitched his camp across the river."

Schon Landman—"Any fool can do that."
Wilmer Page—"Let's see you do it."

Miss Gordy—"How much time did you put on this lesson?"
Lucile Barclay—"About an hour, railroad time."
Teacher—"What do you mean by railroad time?"
Lucile—"Including stops and delays."

Ringling—"I know where you can get a chicken dinner for five cents."
Skillern (in amazement)—"Where?"
Ringling—"At George Neimeyer Grain Co."

NATURAL CURIOSITY

Peg—"'Ex' had a decollete gown Xmas that was held up by mere piece of will."
Smedes—"Will who?"

Miss Winn—"Your notes should be written so that the most ignorant will be able to understand them."
Martha Gilliland—"Well, Miss Winn, what part don't you understand?"

Lost—A Latin book by a Freshman with a torn back and an appendix covered with ink.

Miss Baldwin— (to Anne Jernigan in back of room using a Caesar pony)—"Will the cavalryman in the rear please dismount and come to the front?"

Skillern—"Sis, where is Ring's watch?"
Sis—"She left it upstairs and it ran down."

Miss Scott—"Where were you born?"
Adelaide—"Virginia."
Miss Scott—"What part?"
Adelaide—"All of me, of course."

Helen Sterchi (Looking at cemetery)—"Didn't know there were so many dead people in Bristol."
Mildred Carpenter (not the elegant)—"Most of them aren't buried."

Maintaining a Merchandising Ideal---

——Twenty-five years ago, when this firm was but an infant in the business world, one of its founders said to another: "Let's make this a store for everybody."

——It was a worthy ideal these young men set for themselves—to strive for and to live up to. In realizing their ideal the founders have seen the little store grow into one of the largest department stores in this section of the country—a store which is truly "Everybody's Store."

——In maintaining this ideal the firm has constantly adhered to two policies which has gained the confidence of every man, woman and child within trading distance of Bristol. These policies are: To handle merchandise of only the best quality and to sell at a fair, reasonable price. Thus every sale has been to a satisfied customer who will remember the quality of the merchandise long after she has forgotten the price. Nor have they been less zealous in guarding their reputation for courtesy, politeness, service and all the other things which go to make this such a pleasant and profitable place to trade.

——One department after another has been added until now almost every home need can be filled. Whether it be wearing apparel, shoes, hosiery, gloves, underwear, piece goods, millinery, toilet goods or any of the other accessories which go to make woman beautiful—everything is new, of high quality and specially selected with reference to the latest authentic styles.

——The spirit of high quality and moderate prices reigns throughout the store and is part and parcel of the maintenance of our ideal.

THE SAMPLER

Only by serving faithfully could a store become paramount in so large a section as that served by the H. P. King Company.

Only by considering service in its broad sense could a store develop a service to mean so much as our ideal.

We believe that the greatest service a department store can render is to have at fair prices the needs of its clientele.

We believe a department store's mission is, or shou d be, to supply, rather than create, demand. Such is our aim, as emphasized by splendid assortments in various stocks thruout the store, from beginning to end of each season.

COLLEGE ANNUALS and INVITATIONS

¶ Appealing, as it does, to the intellectual, there is no class of work that demands more uniform quality than printing and advertising for Educational Institutions.

¶ The services we offer are not mechanical only, but cover the intellectual and artistic branches of the work as well, including Editing, Compiling, Designing, Engraving, Suggestion, Criticism, and Complete Supervision, affording facilities which are invaluable to those not initiated in the intricacies of modern printing.

¶ If you wish to produce a program or an edition book reflecting individuality and character, combined with finished artistic results in its composition and make-up, consult us.

¶ Let us demonstrate the kind of work we are producing.
